Eventing Camp at Inavale Farm

Inavale Farm is home to 65 horses, and Oregon's only USEA recognized horse trials, held each year in June. We offer 160 acres of trails, fields, forest, and cross country courses. Indoor and outdoor arenas are available for dressage and jumping. Bring your horse to Inavale for a fun weekend of eventing at all levels. This camp is open to all levels (beginning eventers and young horses welcome), and designed to help you prepare for the upcoming competition season, or to just further your riding skills and experience. Two group lessons each day will include some flat work, followed by either a show jumping or cross country lesson. Primitive camping and stabling is included.

The instructors: Stephanie Parker and Kelsey Horn-
Stephanie has been engaged in the sport of eventing for nearly 40 years. She is a certified USEA level 2 instructor, and worked as Inavale Farm's Eventing Instructor from 1996 to 2003. She has ridden to the Intermediate level and developed many young horses to the Preliminary level. In 2003 she moved to Redmond, Oregon where she purchased a small farm and established Parker Eventing. She is a passionate teacher and works with riders of all ages & skill levels. She also enjoys developing horses and currently owns three young thoroughbreds.

Kelsey has taught at Inavale for 14 years, and been a favorite of campers every year. She has ridden to the Intermediate ** level and is a USEA certified instructor. Kelsey currently has three young horses she is bringing along to be promising eventers; two of them have already produced several wins (including championships) in Young Event Horse classes in the west.
