Barb Crabo is a top level event rider based in Scottsdale AZ while competing heavily in the entire West as well as nationally. She competes in three-day events from California to Maryland, including a number of appearances at the prestigious Rolex Kentucky CCI* (now 5*). In 2015 she traveled to France to compete in the Pau CCI* (now 5*). Barb has been the USEA Area X Rider of the Year too many times to count. She has consistently done very well with her mounts, including winning the 2002 National One-Star (now -Star) Eventing Championships on Groovy and again in 205 on Eveready. She has won the American Eventing Championships at the Advanced Level and were runners up in the Adequan Gold Cup Series. She has won the Galway Downs CCI (Now 4*). She is currently bringing along a new crop of home-breds. Her daughter and former student is now a working student for Liz Halliday-Sharpe, the USEA 2020 Rider of the Year.
